Our partnership with Gateway Church is different than many other mission trips. As we are going to support their ministry, we can only bring a small group of people with a specific skill set on each trip. For our Summer 2024 trip, we need people who are good with kids, have an understanding and physical capability to play sports, and can do some light teaching/dancing, can help plan/prepare food for large groups.

If you have this gift set, please give some examples of ways that you have used them:

Mission Trip Financial Guidelines

As Park Hill begins going on more frequent Mission Trips with long-term partners, it is important that policies are set in place on what the financial expectation will be for those going on the trip and for the church.

Proposed Policies:

Wales Interns: Interns will be responsible for raising the funds necessary for their internship. The church will take up one love offering from the stage for each intern with all donations going to their balance. Interns are welcome to go to individuals or Sunday School classes and ask for additional support. Additionally, if interns would like to do additional fundraisers, they are welcome to do so pending staff approval. Fundraisers must be organized by the intern and are not sponsored by the church.

Park Hill is willing to serve as a holding place for intern donations. Upon request, Park Hill will provide the intern with the amount in the fund and a breakdown of who was given. Park Hill will also process and cover the cost of wiring the money to MLW. Any money raised over the needed amount will be given back to the intern.

Mission Trips: Park Hill will cover the cost of travel and lodging for staff on the trip. As it is their responsibility to lead multiple trips, any unnecessary financial burden should be avoided. Staff will be responsible for any food, souvenirs, or extras from the trip.

All others participating in the trip will be responsible for the cost of their trip. An estimated cost of airfare, lodging, transportation, and any other known variables will be given to interested individuals as early as possible.

The church will take up a love offering for each mission trip to help scholarships. Scholarships will be given to individuals based on need and will be approved by the staff or other team set up by the church. If an individual desires a scholarship, they must complete the attached paperwork. The church may, but does not guarantee, to organize a fundraiser for the participants.
